

Preparing for the Declarations

At the start of the game we introduced a question as the topic for discussion. The final part of the game takes the form of a Wisdom Council in which one person for each node on the Glasgow Mandala makes a declaration about the wise action needed in their area. The aim is to build a picture together of what we now consider collectively to be the best actions to take to address the question we started with.

Take some time to review, reflect and prepare:

- Connect with the node you represent and how it now looks in the context of all the discussions so far.
- Reflect on what action(s) are likely to be most relevant now and in the future.
- Prepare a declaration for the Wisdom Council in the form below.

“In terms of [my node], it is my/our considered view that in order to address [the question for this game] it is essential to ...
